

Maths en Jeans Congress 2016

Of the Middle-East zone

Lycée Bonaparte - DOHA

120 students from schools all over the Middle East zone will meet in Doha from March 16 to 19, to exchange, reflect and discover Mathematics with researchers.

Participants :

The French Lycée of Pondichéry, Lycée Massignon of Abu Dhabi, Lycée Voltaire and Lycée Bonaparte of Doha.

Wednesday March 16

Prelude

- ❖ 15h15 open conference for the students of the lycée
 Marion Le Gonidec : « The birth of probabilities »
- ❖ 19h30 Open conference to the public
 Jean-Paul Delahaye : « Paradoxes »

Location : lycée Bonaparte main courtyard.

Thursday, March 17

Inaugural Day

- ❖ 09h30 inauguration of the congress.
- ❖ 09h45 opening conference for the students of the congress:
 Jean-Paul Delahaye : « Pavings »
- ❖ 18h00 conference open to the public:
 Benoit Rittaud : « From Al-jabr to algebra »

Location : MIA Auditorium (conference in english)

Friday 18 and Saturday 19

- ❖ 09h00 conferences for the students taking part in the congress
 Benoit Rittaud : « the measurement of the great pyramid »
 Marion Le Gonidec : « numeric systems »
- ❖ 10h30 student projects presentation
- ❖ Saturday 14h00 : solution elements given by the researchers.

Researchers :

- ❖ Marion Le Gonidec : research professor at University of La Reunion.
- ❖ Jean-Paul Delahaye : research professor at University of Lille and at the CNRS.
- ❖ Benoit Rittaud : research professor at the University of Paris 13.

